

From: Patrick Hsu >
Date: 4 March 2017 at 12:38
Subject: In Memory - Chris Liang

Alex: ... please pass this on

We cherish those days of wine and laughter,
We love the cartoon of spice and punk,
As we goose step one, two and three
To the wonder land we go
Patrick Hsu [{Hercules CA}

From: Alex Mak >
Date: 5 March 2017 at 07:05
Subject: In Memory - Chris Liang

Dear Bob, Peter, Steve, Philip, Patrick & Joe,
Thank you all on behalf of WYK62s worldwide for attending the Memorial Service of Chris Liang, our beloved classmate who passed-on so suddenly. Please pay our collective respects and offer our deepest sympathies and condolences to Stella, Patrick and the rest of the Liang family. May Chris rest in eternal peace !
You all have our heartfelt gratitude.
God bless,
Alex

From: Peter Sien >
Date: 5 March 2017 at 08:34
Subject: In Memory - Chris Liang

We 6 of us just finished the memorial service. Robert Shen took some pictures, will send to you when he gets home. We also saw the entomment at the mausoleum before we left. More photo of 6 of us to come. There is a 62 classmate there who left at class 2A, father Kennedy class he said, was at Chri Liang's class. Name: victor ling. Vtfling0806@gamil.com. You maybe able to find him in the class photo of class 2A.

Peter Sien

From: Robert Shen >

Date: 5 March 2017 at 13:14

Subject: In Memory - Chris Liang

It was a very nice service, Here are the photos I took and labeled.

The last photo #13 was taken in 2013 for my welcome to the Bay area, and Liang Kit was there.

Peter Sien also welcome us to his home for a small get together today after the service:- thanks Peter.

I added Joe Wai, Steven Kong and Victor Ling to the distribution

Bob Shen 沈長康

From: Alex Mak >

Date: 5 March 2017 at 17:16

Subject: In Memory - Chris Liang

Dear Gang of 6,

You guys are great and so are the photos. I will add a write-up and publicize tomorrow as today is Sunday in HK and most are out and about with friends/family etc.

1) WYK62 Victor Ling - He, like Chris and I, started as a WYK61 (Chris repeated P.6, with me and Stephen Chu Fai=pang etc - I omitted that fact) and Victor Ling repeated F.2. I found him in F.2D under Fr. Doody in 1958 (attached pages 109/110) and then again in 1959 (attached page 109 - but noted on bottom of photo in caption as absent). His Chinese name is 林德芬.

2) WYK59 Peter Lee - I found him on attached 1959 pages 97 & 98 in F.5B under Fr Finneran. His names is Lee Kwang Tsong 李光聰. I can discern the facial likeness comparing the two photos old and new (taken by you guys). Am I wrong or correct, you guys tell me.

Anyway, thank you all again. Nice one, well done. Bravo !

Take care,

Alex

P.S. Thanks for putting my name on the card too, much appreciated !

From: Peter Sien >
Date: 5 March 2017 at 23:45
Subject: In Memory - Chris Liang

Thank you
See you all soon
Peter Sien

From: Raymond Lau >
Date: 6 March 2017 at 07:28
Subject: In Memory - Chris Liang

Thank you, Alex, for being the faithful postman, rain or shine.
Thank you, Bob, for giving us the many memories. And thank you, Pat, for taking us on a wild goose chase -- even to wonderland. Alas, where is Alice? So it is with Chris, even as he leaves us, he leaves us with some mirth -- and many happy memories. We should all be grateful for him -- and for our many friends.

Raymond

END