From the President,
Joe Wong

"Thanks to the dedicated effort of many of you, Kowloon Wah Yan's 75th anniversary celebration was a tremendous success beyond belief. It was a joyous occasion, a time to remember and to treasure. This is truly the Wah Yan spirit at work. I wish I can thank everyone personally who had put in so much time and energy in the last few months to organize this truly wonderful event for all of us.

Mr. Anthony Ho had been instrumental in motivating us. Without his relentless effort and attention to details, we would not be able to organize a celebration in such a grand scale. Victor Tong was instrumental in securing the venue and producing the video. Sandy Ng had worked himself extremely hard, having meetings day in and day out. Samuel Lum has put in many sleepless nights reading the draft copies of the souvenir book. Gus Yeung, Patrick Lai and Simon Chau too had endured many last minute meetings to control the tickets and arrange the seating plan. Our able young member Tony Wan was present in many of the situations where a helping hand was needed. Chris Tam was running around all night long at the gala as the floor manager. Thanks to the ability of David Hui and his friend Johnny Koo, we had a display that brought back much happy memories of the bygone years. Patsy Sie and her friends went through the evening without any food looking after the silent auction. Sonny Sie with his magnetic voice and talent was a great MC at the podium. Peter Au as a last minute draft, had the CFMT TV working for us, taping all our events. Let us not forget our soccer team with its coach Dermot Chan, captains Raymond Chan and Tim Kwan that won the Wah Yan Anniversary Cup for us. The golf tournament organized by Pat Lai was a great success and thanks to our participants, we won the trophy. We have to thank Angela Chan for her generosity for providing us with the production crew and sponsoring the decorations and table centre pieces. She not only spent many hours in creating the centre pieces and decoration, but she also contributed a lot of time planning for the gala and the souvenir book. Ms Gertrude Chan had also worked very hard behind our back, helping Mr. Ho in every possible way. We should also thank all the volunteers, my two sons included, for the labour they put in. To all the sponsors and donors, I want to give our deepest appreciation as well. Of course, all our performers should be thanked for without them, the gala would not be complete.

Nevertheless, it is you, our members, to whom we are indebted. Your enthusiastic support of all the functions has given the association strength and hope for the future. You have demonstrated the true spirit of Wah Yan and that we Wahyanites from WYK are in for the stay and the association can count on you for support. So again, thanks everybody and may I wish you all a very pleasant summer."

80/75 Celebrations

Tim Kwan and Raymond Chan after receiving the Jubilee Trophy from Mr. George Tam, Principal of WYCHK. Raymond scored the winning goal.

The winning team members are: Bill Ip, Cedric Ko, David Lai, Steve Fung, Tim Kwan, Raymond Chan, Peter Au, Dermot Chan, Jim Fung, Anthony Chiu, Bosco Leung, Patrick Lai, Simon Ho, Kaiser Chan, Peter Chu, Joseph Wong, Albert Wong, Joseph Cheng

The first event started with the kick-off of the Jubilee Soccer Cup match between the two brother colleges. The WYK team with its players of average age of 42+ entertained the younger team of WYCHK of average age of 25+. Most of the actions was on the home side of WYK but Raymond Chan scored at one of the rare chances when the ball was played at the other end during the first half. Although there were many attempts at the goal, our goalkeeper, Peter Au, and the defense played an excellent tactical game.

The narrow lead was held on until the end of 90 minutes. Mr. Mui, our former PT teacher, said, "They (WYCHK) should use their outside players more and make us run for the ball until our players stopped gasping for breath." Luckily the advice was not heeded. An interesting point to note was that Fr. Coghlan was one of the very few people who stayed in the field for the entire duration of the match.

By comparison, the Golf Tournament was a far more relaxing event. We were again given the honour of keeping the Jubilee Trophy. Sonny and son, Patrick Lai and Samuel Lum formed our team. Thanks to Gus Yeung from Molson, there were prizes for most of the participants.

The evening of July 2, 1999 saw the arrival of two coaches from New York. One brought in the U.S. (Eastern) Chapter members and the other brought back the Vancouver/Calgary/Edmonton group. We all enjoyed a good Chinese dinner at New World Seafood Restaurant. The Wahyanites and their families met Fr. Coghlan, Fr. Farren and Fr. Zee from Hong Kong. There were 150 Wahyanites and their families.

The picnic on July 3, 1999 was organized by WYCHK. There were three full coaches going to pick cherries and to ride the Maid of the Mist. A lot of preparation was worked out. The chief organizers, Peter Yeung and KY Ng, were on top of things, attending to every detail during the whole trip. The packed lunch was appreciated by one and all.

"Despite of the unbearable heat, the boat ride at Niagara was an awesome experience. (It reminded us of the rain at home)," writes Larry Yip from Vancouver.

The evening ended with yet another beautiful dinner at Ruby Restaurant, hosted by WYCHK to celebrate their 80th Anniversary. There were again 15 tables of happy Wah Yan families.

Sunday Mass on July 4, 1999 was concelebrated by Fr. Zee, Fr. Coghlan and Fr. Farren at The Blessed Chinese Martyrs Catholic Church in Markham. The 8:30 AM mass was attended by many Wahyanites and their families together with the parishioners. The mass was in Cantonese and Fr. Zee preached. The homily was on good memories and parenting. The two themes were nicely woven together. The choir sang beautifully and the whole experience was memorable. The Fathers, to their pleasant surprise, met some of their former acquaintances after mass.

At the dim sum brunch that followed, there was plenty of food for the seventy people present.

Diamond Jubilee Gala Dinner

The event was well attended by 450 people who enjoyed a program meticulously planned and carried out by the chief organizer,

Sandy Ng, and his team of workers.

The entry of the official party, voiced over by CFMT programme manager, Peter Au, started a memorable evening. Peter Leung led the singing of O Canada. Mr. Hsueh led the directors to sing the school hymn. Then the magnetic pair of MCs, Sonny Sie and Ali Yu, held the attention of the audience for the rest of the evening. Fr. Farren narrated his journey from Hong Kong to Toronto in his kindly voice and was impressed by the service he received. Fr. Zee told a beautiful story of two brothers who tried to help one another. (An allusion to the two Wah Yans?) Fr. Coghlan spoke of the humble start of the two Colleges eighty and seventy-five years ago. He reckoned that both schools have produced close to forty-two thousand responsible citizens. Speeches were short. Exchanges of gifts between the Chapters were neatly carried out. The video from alma maters with messages from Fr. Deignan, Fr. Coghlan, Fr. Farren, Fr. Zee, Mr. George Tam, Mr. Norman So, Mr. Francis Kong and Mr. Francis So brought back lots of fond memories. It was followed by the cutting of the 75th Anniversary Cake and the sweet music of When Irish Eyes Are Smiling was floating in the air.

The entertainment was a great success. The powerful and dynamic piano recital by Andrew Kwong, son of Raymond, captivated everyone's attention.

The impersonation of Elvis Presley by Larry Yip brought the house down. It's Now or Never had a few ladies jump up onto the stage to present him flowers. The Wonder of You charmed the whole audience. No wonder Mrs. Yip always attended his performance. After the King, there came the wizard of violin. Jonathan Der, son of Edmund of class 54, mesmerized all with his skillfully executed lovely melodies. His serenades at various tables related so well with his listeners that he endeared himself to all and was applauded loud and long. The air was now charged with the expectation of more exciting performance to come. One Day When We Were Young beautifully sung by Ms Winnie Wei brought back so much fond memories to so many that the banquet room was filled with tenderness and feeling. When Mr. Hsueh was escorted to the stage to join Ms Wei to sing the Chinese duets, his former students were looking forward to hearing their former music master sing for the first time. His rich and colourful baritone blended smoothly with the beautiful and crystal-clear soprano voice of Ms Wei in the two Chinese folk songs. They showed the Wahyanites and their guests what artists can do with their voices to capture the hearts of their listeners. The whole programme was rounded up with the singing of Auld Lang Syne. Those who enjoyed dancing stayed on till the early hours of the dawn.

Some comments:

"It brought back a lot of good old memories for us Wahyanites. My feeling can be expressed in my version of a credit card commercial:
Plane tickets for Fr. Coghlan,
Fr. Ferran approx. $xxxx
Expenses for events $xxxx
Jubilee Dinner pp $38.00
Reminiscence, Reunion with old friends and teachers;
Meeting other alumni Priceless"
~ Henry Yip

"I'm so happy to hear that the video was well received. I just wished I could be there with you all that evening. Please keep in touch."
~ John Chu of Centro, Hong Kong.

"All our 61 grads who were present at the Gala Dinner last night appreciate your efforts"

~ Wong Hin Shing.

"...We appreciate all that you have done to make the '80/75' celebrations so unforgettable for each one of us...You have shown us a fine example of what the Wah Yan Spirit is all about and WE THANK YOU! We look forward to seeing many of your happy faces at the 2000 International Conference in L.A." ~ Larry Yip of Vancouver.

"Sorry that I missed your function. Anyway, glad to hear that you had a successful dinner. Look forward to seeing you in the near future."

~ Joe Chan of Fairchild, Vancouver.

"It was a great privilege and honour for me to be one of your guests. I was very moved by the warmth of your welcome and by all that you did to make me feel at home. Many happy memories came flooding into my heart (especially when refereeing the football match!), I was very happy to see so many united families and so many people who have settled down so well in a new land without forgetting their beloved Hong Kong. On Sunday morning, July 4th, I was grateful to God that so many Wahyanites had not forgotten Him away from the protecting walls of their old school."

~ Fr. Coghlan.

"Please accept our sincere appreciation for inviting us to your Diamond Jubilee Celebrations which were both fantastic and memorable. Congratulations." ~ Fen & Helen Lee (Former teacher of WYCHK)
Larry Yip summed up the 80/75 celebrations: "One for all, and all for one --In Hoc Signo Vinces -- we are one family"

We acknowledge the following for their contributions to make the celebrations a success:

Francis Kwong, Kester Kong, Chris Tam, Wong Hing Shing and Joseph C. Wong for their generous donations;

Angela Chan for designing and making centre pieces for 44 tables, for providing decorations, light and sound production for the gala dinner; Frank Chau for sponsoring ticket printing;

John Chu Ka Yan for producing the 80/75 video;

Peter Au and Jimmy Wong (US) for media coverage;

Francis Kwong for producing the Diamond Jubilee Souvenir Book; Ho Paklee and his son, Eric, for designing the cover of the book.

港九華仁書院多市校友 聯合慶祝母校周年紀念

香港及九龍著名男校華仁書院海外校友於多倫多聯合慶祝母校八十及七十五周年

年
港九華仁書院安大略省兩個校友會聯同紐約校友會於本年七月一日在多倫多主辦為期四天慶祝該兩校八十及七十五周年校慶，除安省及紐約校友外，有很多來自溫哥華及卡加利的校友參加。

此外香港方面更有九龍校監徐志忠神父，前九華校長范育倫神父，香港校長譚兆炳，前校長谷紀賢神父，前副校長(港)余沛霖，(九)何鎮源等出席多市這個盛會。

主辦單位更編排多項為參加校友及家眷的活動，所以參加者甚踴躍，人數多達四百人，首天足球比賽、哥爾夫球賽，是各友會的牙較戰。晚上於新世界酒家設歡迎宴，數百校友雲集酒樓，很多數十年不見的同窗互相相認，大家暢談昔日在校時的往事，一片歡笑聲此起彼落。

席上由籌辦主席之一黃志釗醫生致歡迎詞。譚兆炳校長更多謝海外校友支持母校捐助校方一些設施，又於翌日安排尼亞加拉瀑布區觀光，又安排往果園摘車厘子，眾人玩到不亦樂乎，並且參觀釀酒廠。

另一個聯歡晚宴，並有抽獎至深夜賓主盡歡。壓軸的一天早上往多倫多天主教中華殉道真福堂舉行校慶感恩彌撒，由三位該校神父共祭。晚上多市九龍華仁校友會更舉行鑽禧校友餐舞會，嘉賓滿堂，筵開四十席，一時衣香鬢影，盛況空前。舞會過後整個慶祝活動亦告一段落。

另一位共同主席透露，華仁書院於一九一九年由徐仁壽先生在港島創立，他以其原籍五華的華字及自己的名字仁壽的仁字組成華仁書院，於一九二九年邀請天主教耶穌會神父任教、徐公後因年事已高而耶穌會神父的教學方針又可信賴，於一九三二年把教務交由耶穌會神父全職負責，而自己正式退休。

而該校於一九二四年創立九龍華仁書院，在過去八十年來該校作育英才無數，在社會各層面都有成功的華仁學生，有很多同學在海外升讀大學，尤其在北美洲，更有很多在多間大學任教授之職，有很多事業有成留在當地發展，故此移居海外之同學漸多，而很多珍惜同窗之情在各地組織校友會，繼續保持友誼，所以有一個口號是華仁天下一家親。

明報

【本報訊】九龍華仁舊生會(安省)為慶祝七十五周年鑽禧校慶，將於七月四日晚在 Crown Plaza Hotel 舉行晚宴，邀請歌唱家韋秀嫻、薛偉祥作特別嘉賓表演。

兩位歌唱家與九龍華仁書院有淵源的淵源。韋秀嫻曾於六十年代為該校作特別表演嘉賓，而薛偉祥除任教於九龍華仁之外，也曾和韋女士合唱於香港舞台及演唱會。

該晚節目豐富，除兩位歌唱家演出助興外，還有來自溫哥華的 Larry Yip 舊生扮演貓王，載歌載舞，舊生的第二代孩子、獲獎多項的鋼琴家 Andrew Kong，及著名小提琴家 Jonathan Der，分別演奏名曲。
