Message on the Occasion of
Wah Yan College Kowloon Diamond Jubilee 1999

Dear Alumni,

I am delighted that the Wah Yan Kowloon Alumni Association of Ontario are celebrating the 75th Anniversary of the school and producing a Diamond Jubilee Souvenir Book. This Souvenir Book will bring back many happy memories of your school days, your classmates, teachers and Principals -- your participation in so many activities, football, tennis, scouts, music, singing and different clubs.

When we reflect back over these 75 years we are very grateful to God for all His blessings; for the dedication of so many Jesuits, lay teachers and principals; for the atmosphere of freedom and space in the school; for the values taught and the education which aimed at preparing students for life.

In the school we were helped to discover ourselves and our abilities which made us feel valuable. Each person has his own special gifts and skills given to him by God. We learned that our greatest joy and happiness is in using our abilities to help others in a spirit of service. The Jesuit ideal in education is that each person is cared for, respected, helped to develop his abilities and his character, intellectually, morally and spiritually, so that he graduates not only competent but also as a good person with a loving and compassionate character.

Today we are challenged by the state of the world in which we live. We need to be a light to dispel some of the darkness of injustice, violence, dishonesty, corruption, poverty, bitterness and hatred. What the world needs is love; loving, honest, caring people. People long to be loved and to love; long for peace and justice. Bring the light of love and hope to others by caring for those in need.

Let the Wah Yan Alumni lead the way. Remember God is on our side. We know that many of you are doing this already and we are proud of you -- continue to keep the light of Wah Yan spirit burning brightly.

Congratulations to you all and particularly to Mr. Anthony Ho our former Vice-Principal, Joseph C. Wong President WYKAAO and Samuel Lum the Editor of the Diamond Jubilee Souvenir Book.

God bless you all.

Dear Wahyanites,

It is thrilling and heart-warming to know that so many of our alumni will be gathered together in Toronto to celebrate the 80th and 75th Anniversaries of the two Wah Yans. What amazes me is that in spite of all the stories of odd characters in Fathers and teachers, there is still so much love and dedication to Wah Yan, especially to all the Jesuit Fathers, after so many years.

Maybe all our clever students can see that underlying the strict discipline of people like Fr. Daly or Fr. Chan, or occasional outbursts of others, there is a basic love, respect and care for each person.

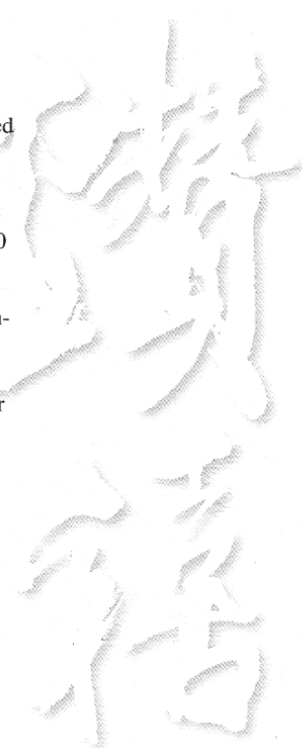

This for me is the essence of the spirit of Wah Yan and it is what underlies the desire to be "men for others" and it explains why we tend to have much trust in all and allow much freedom without over-strict punishment. Wah Yan has never been too religious on the surface. But the appreciation for the value and uniqueness of each person is very Christian.

May such a vision continue to inspire us to serve and build communities no matter where we are. "God is love, whoever lives in love, lives in God."

The world is undergoing huge changes at the turn of a new millennium. The Internet has forced all of us to have to rethink education and business and the meaning of being a person and the mode of relating... Students today are much more restless and cannot just sit still for the whole day in class. Yet there are also many with their unique gifts. A Form 3 student at WYK already has a registered company in computer services and software production and is doing well in both business and studies. CEOs at 40 are already considered old and dated and are being replaced by those in late 20s!

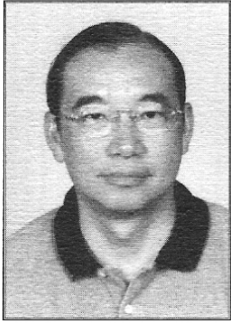

How we can maintain and foster the value of each person and of building communities is a continual challenge to us. Quite a few past students have taken a directly active role in guiding our students today through the Newsgroup. I'd like to thank in particular, Mr. Wong Hin-Shing from Toronto. I also wish to thank Mr. Anthony Ho and Dr. Joseph C. Wong and many others who have helped to organise for this reunion event and to build up the Wah Yan community. The Ignatian motto, "For the Greater Glory of God," translated into today's language can be partly interpreted as "building wholeness and real communities on earth." May we all continue to link up through reunions and the Internet and build a global community of communities.

George Zee, S.J.

Dear Old Boys of Wah Yan College, Kowloon,

Congratulations to everybody on the occasion of the Diamond Jubilee! Our school has travelled a long way to establish herself as one of the leading schools in Hong Kong. You have been part of that long journey and you have contributed to our success both as students and as graduates. I wish to take this opportunity to say a big "Thank you" for all the support, prayerful and mundane, you have given. Schools can never boast of their success unless they have won the love of the vast majority of their alumni. I believe Wah Yan falls safely within the category of those that can, although it might be a slight overstatement to say that every Wah Yan graduate loves his alma mater as much as any other. Having received what you have offered and having assumed your love, I venture to ask you to join hands with us to make our school even better so that we may celebrate our centenary as one of the leading schools in the world.

Message from Dr. Joseph C. Wong
PRESIDENT, WAH YAN COLLEGE KOWLOON ALUMNI ASSOCIATION OF ONTARIO

Wah Yan College Kowloon Alumni Association of Ontario

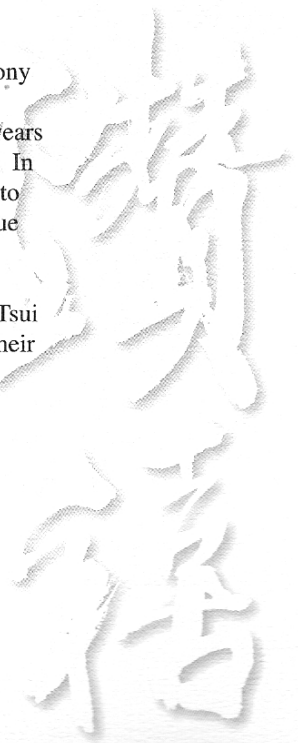

I am indeed honoured to have the privilege of serving as the president of the Wah Yan College Kowloon Alumni Association in this momentous year. 1999 not only marks the 75th anniversary of Wah Yan Kowloon, but it is also the 80th anniversary of our brother school Wah Yan Hong Kong. The two Ontario Alumni chapters, together with the Eastern U.S. chapter, are joining force to celebrate this very important occasion. I would like to take the opportunity to welcome all our honour guests and fellow Wahyanites and their families from all over North America and especially those who travelled a long way from Hong Kong to attend our celebrations here in Toronto.

It was in 1924 that Mr. Peter Tsui Yan Sau, through his vision and personal enterprise, founded Wah Yan College, Kowloon. Over the last seventy five years, due to the dedicated effort of all those who followed Mr. Tsui, the school has grown and developed into one of the premier secondary schools of Hong Kong.

It is with great pride that our association presents the Wah Yan College, Kowloon Diamond Jubilee Souvenir book to commemorate this very special event in the history of our alma mater. Mr. Anthony Ho, Chair of the celebrations and Mr. Samuel Lum, chief editor and many others, have put into the book countless time and effort to produce an album worthy to be kept by all Wahyanites for many years to come. I am sure that many of the pictures will bring back happy memories of the years bygone. In this connection, we should salute all the Jesuit fathers and lay teachers, for they not only passed on to us great knowledge, but they also showed us the way of life, to love and to care for others, in the true sense of the Wah Yan spirit.

Here I want to thank Mr. Francis Kwong, our past president, for his financial support; Ms. Angela Tsui Chan, the grand-daughter of Mr. Peter Tsui, Miss Lorraine Ng, Mr Paklee Ho and Mr. Eric Ho for their technical help in designing this book. Thanks are also due to many of our friends and members, without their support, this project cannot become a reality.

Joseph Wong Chee Chiu
President

Golden Jubilee Speech Day Official Party

"I knew very little about the school days of my father. From what I could gather, he was apparently quite bright, placing first or second in class." - Paul Tsui's Memoir

Mr. Tsui Yan Sau was born in Ng Wah County in Guangdong Province, China. He attended St. Joseph's College and did well in the then public examinations, the Junior Local and the Cambridge Senior. He then completed the Teacher Training Course at the then Technical Institute. He taught for a short while at Ying Wa School for Boys and then went back to teach English at his native town at Meixian for a few years. Then he returned and took up a teaching post at St. Joseph's.

An educator with vision, he founded Wah Yan College, Hong Kong at 60 Hollywood Road on December 16, 1919. Shortly afterwards, he relocated the growing school to 2 Robinson Road. Under his leadership, Wah Yan College was admitted to the Hong Kong Government Grant School List in 1922. It became the first school administered by Chinese to be included in this prestigious group of schools. Mr. Tsui believed that "education is the best of all investments for one's future" as he often reminded his children and grandchildren - recalls grand daughter Angela Tsui Chan.

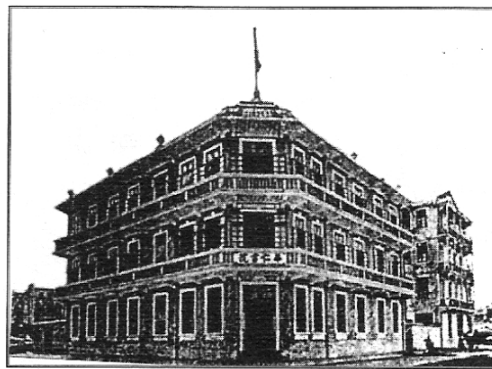

Then, Mr. Lim Hoy Lan was appointed the Principal and the school was even more successful and highly regarded by the public. Soon a Branch School was established at 70 Portland Street, Kowloon and Mr. Tsui became its first Principal.

History of Wah Yan Kowloon in Pictures

- 1924 December Wah Yan Branch School was opened on 1st and 2nd floors of 70 Portland Street, at the northeast corner of Portland and Pitt, with entrance at Pitt Street. There were two classes of 24 boys.
- 1925 April More rooms were rented to accommodate 141 boys on roll.
May The general strike paralyzed business in Hong Kong. School was closed.
July School was re-opened with 24 boys.
- 1926 February Numbers had so greatly increased that more floors in other houses on Portland Street were rented.
September There were Class 8, Class 7, Class 6 (Form 1), Class 5 (Form 2) and Class 4 (Form 3) for the 227 boys on roll.

Custom-built Kowloon Branch of Wah Yan College at Nelson Street

- 1928 The school was located at the corner of Nelson Street and Tung Choi Street, facing a wide open space in front.
Mr. Chow Cheng Lam was the Principal.

Mr. Fatty Chow, as he was fondly remembered by his students, remained on staff until he retired in 1961. He taught English and Geography. He was universally admired and respected by his colleagues and students.

1929 First Graduating Class

The high academic standard of Wah Yan College, Kowloon had a perfect start. All eight students in the Graduating Class 2 (Form 5) passed the Junior Local Public Examination. Amongst the graduates, middle in the back row is Li Yiu Bor, who, after completing his Teacher Training, taught at Wah Yan Hong Kong (1931 ~ 41) and then Wah Yan Kowloon (1945 ~ 63). On his left is Tso Kwok Cheung, our live link to the early days at 70 Portland Street. Names of the early teachers were supplied by him.

1932 September Mr. Lim Hoy Lan joined the staff after the Jesuits were asked to take over the management of Wah Yan College, Hong Kong.

1933 January Mr. Lim became Principal. The school was operated independently of Wah Yan College, Hong Kong.

February Investiture of 11th Kowloon Boy Scouts Group took place. Scoutmaster was Mr. Chan Fook Hong, brother of Fr. Francis Chan, S.J.

Mr. Lim was a teacher of teachers and built up a devoted and competent staff for the future growth of the school. A strict disciplinarian, he was nicknamed Tiger Lim.

Mr. Lim Hoy Lan
(1933 ~ 1952)

1941 September Two Senior classes (Matriculation) were started at 103 Austin Road and students would no longer have to go to Wah Yan Hong Kong for their matriculation course.

December The Japanese invaded Hong Kong and the school was closed down. During the war the school was occupied by the Japanese.

1945 School reopened after the war.

1946 Fr. Patrick Toner, S.J., joined the administration as a 'Co-respondent'.

Seal of the Society of Jesus

Members of the Society of Jesus (Jesuits), in the eyes of the Chinese, are religious of selfless devotion, scholarly erudition and respect Chinese culture and tradition. The Irish Jesuits came to Hong Kong in 1926. They were asked to take over the management of Wah Yan College, Hong Kong in 1932 and then Wah Yan College, Kowloon in 1946.

1949

The Society of Jesus started to look for a site in Kowloon for Wah Yan College. Fr. Ryan, the Superior, Fr. Burke, Principal of Wah Yan College, Hong Kong and Fr. Toner ended their search on a hill overlooking Waterloo Road and some rice-fields.

1952 September 15

The 8:55 am bell ushered in a new era in the history of Wah Yan College, Kowloon. The Principal was Fr. Toner; the teaching staff was comprised of the Nelson Street and Wah Yan Hong Kong PM School teachers. Students from both schools amalgamated as one student body.

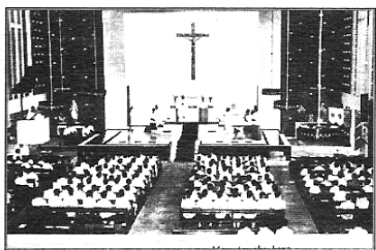

Fr. Toner was the Rector (1952 ~ 57). The Rev. Rector of the Jesuit community at Wah Yan Kowloon was also the Principal of the school.

Fr. Toner at dinner with Mark, son of Peter Tsui

Fr. Toner's vision : "The school is but an extension of the home and the teacher's work is to supplement the education begun there by the parents...It shares the life, the Christian life, of many families. That is what I hope Wah Yan shall become." (1957). Fr. Toner retired to Ireland in 1963.

Chapel in 1958

Fr. Dargan at Teachers' Picnic

1957 ~ 60 Fr. Dargan left Ricci Hall where he was Warden to become Rector and Principal of our College. His piercing eyes would look right into you and invite you to open up and speak to him. He was always found listening to students around him at recess, before and after classes. His school captain in '58, George Zee, later became the first Jesuit priest from Wah Yan Kowloon.

One-third of the teaching staff was members of the Society of Jesus (S.J.). To promote better understanding between the religious and the lay members, Fr. Dargan held regular staff picnics. While he played bridge, he would encourage people to play mahjong at picnics. Both are mental exercises.

Fr. Dargan in Rome where he worked after leaving Hong Kong

During his time, St. Ignatius Chapel was built. Together with its inscription, AD MAIOREM DEI GLORIAM, our chapel became a landmark on Waterloo Road.

Art and Music were encouraged. A solid foundation was laid for future growth.

1960 ~ 66 Fr. Farren became the Rector of the Jesuit Community of Wah Yan College, Kowloon and thus its Principal. He was kind and approachable. Students talked to him comfortably during free time. There was always an easy feeling when Fr. Farren was around.

"For losing yourself in work for others, you are finding your own true worth and in that only will you find true and lasting satisfaction," he advised his students on Speech Day in 1965.

Fr. Farren

During this period, Primary 6 classes were eliminated. 90% of Form 1 student in-take were sent by the Government. Fr. Farren would see that the remaining discretionary places were filled by brothers of the present students.

Fr. Farren left office after he had served two terms of Rector. He left for Wah Yan Hong Kong and then came back to teach until he retired completely in 1999, after 40 years of dedicated service to Wah Yan.

History of Wah Yan Kowloon in Pictures

Fr. Reid at Golden Jubilee Art Exhibition

1966 ~ 78 This scholastic year saw the introduction of a new system in the government of the school. A Principal was nominated over the school and its affairs, and a Rector was appointed over the Community. This would ensure that when the Rector completed his term of office, the Principal would not be changed.

Fr. Derek Reid from Wah Yan Hong Kong became the Principal and Fr. James Tarpey, the Rector. Fr. Reid remained in the Principal's Office for twelve years.

In his time, he appointed an Assistant Principal, Mr. Anthony Ho, who served in this capacity from 1967 to 1977. This is a change from the old system of having a Jesuit as Prefect of Studies. Mr. Ho "was, in the eyes of the students, strict, as he should be in maintaining discipline, and yet an easier member of the authority to approach, since he was a Chinese." (The Shield, 1968)

Fr. Reid believed in a system that would produce agents of social change. "Here in Wah Yan, we are making an honest effort to arouse social awareness in our students and to give them a sense of belonging, and of being of value and importance to the community in which they live."

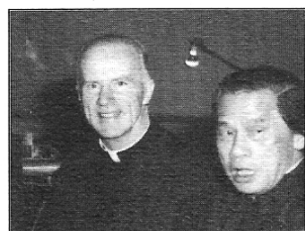

We witnessed the healthy growth of the Students Association which matured into self-government eventually.

East Building was completed in 1967 with the successful fund raising programme initiated by Fr. Chan, former Prefect of Studies.

During this time, Fr. Coghlan had been teacher, student counsellor and spiritual director for 8 years, the last 6 years of which he was also the Rector.

East Wing in 1968

Fr. Deignan with Paul Tsui

Swimming Pool in 1988

West Wing in 1990

1978 ~ 91 During the 13 years as Principal at Wah Yan College, Kowloon, Fr. Deignan continued the building expansion programme to provide better study environment for the students.

When Fr. Deignan arrived, he introduced instrumental music into the school. The Western Orchestra was formed in 1981 and the Chinese Orchestra in 1983. These together with the Intermediate and Senior Choirs gave the students ample opportunities to carry on the strong music tradition at Wah Yan which has produced a few world-class professional musicians.

Fr. Deignan believed that, "A Jesuit school should be a training ground where students learn to become 'men for others.'" To move in this direction, he launched a staff development programme, "Dialogue on Teaching as a Service" in 1980.

History of Wah Yan Kowloon in Pictures

Mr. Norman So, a student in Wah Yan Kowloon from 1959 to 1967, became the first lay member to become Principal in a Jesuit school in Hong Kong. He has the challenging position of keeping the Jesuit tradition in education with diminishing Jesuit involvement.

Norman So as a Student in 1961

Norman So in 1996

1996

Fr. Zee became School Supervisor. He said, "The moral and religious education in schools must focus on helping students to really develop a sense of identity and find the meaning and mission of their lives."

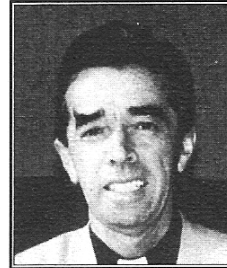

1999

When school term is over in July, we see the retirement of Mr. Francis Kong after having taught at school since 1961, Mr. Francis So since 1966, Mr. Paul Wong since 1978 and Mr. Wong Chung Him since 1988, a total of 103 years of teaching!

Seventy Five Years And Growing.....

*Fr. Gallagher (1952-40)
First Jesuit Principal from Ireland
at Wah Yan College, Hong Kong*

*Fr. Coghlan (1988-97)
Last Jesuit Principal from Ireland
at Wah Yan College, Hong Kong*

The vision of Mr. Tsui, the hard work of Mr. Lim and Mr. Chow passed on to the Jesuit Principals, Fr. Gallagher, Fr. Bourke, Fr. Cooney, Fr. Carroll, Fr. Barrett, Fr. Toner, Fr. Dargan, Fr. Farren, Fr. Joseph Foley, Fr. Deignan, Fr. Reid, Fr. Baptista and last but not least, Fr. Coghlan. These great educators, together with the dedicated teaching and administrative staff have moulded Wah Yan into what it is now.

Wah Yan graduates have helped make Hong Kong the way it is today. With confidence, they are helping to shape what Hong Kong will be in the millenium.

Wah Yan College Kowloon Alumni Association of Ontario - A Brief Overview

Wah Yan College Kowloon Alumni Association of Ontario was founded in 1983 at the suggestion of Mr. Anthony Ho, our former vice principal. At present, we have close to 300 members on our roster. The most senior one is a member of WYK's first graduating class of 1929; the youngest ones being the graduates of the 1990s.

Over the years, our chapter has held many different functions for our members. Every year since its inception in 1986, we have participated in one of the major Chinese Canadian events of the city - the Toronto Hong Kong Joint Schools Alumni Valentine's Ball. This past February, together with the local Wah Yan Hong Kong alumni association, we co-hosted the Joint School Ball with great success. In 1995, also with the Wah Yan Hong Kong alumni, we assisted in the production of a Chinese opera in English, 'A Tale of Two Kingdoms,' by the famed Wah Yan Dramatic Society. Under the direction of our former chemistry teacher, Mr. Wong Chin Wah, the opera raised funds for the Greater Toronto Chinese Cultural Centre. In response to the Wah Yan International Networking Committee's calling to build a global Wah Yan family, our chapter had sent delegates to the last two Wah Yan International Conferences held in Hong Kong and Calgary in 1996 and 1998 respectively. We have also received the student ambassadors from the two Wah Yans in 1996.

With the objectives of revitalizing and strengthening the association, our 15th anniversary Annual General Meeting was held on 29 November, 1998. A new Board of Directors was formed and a new Executive Committee elected to carry out the operations of our chapter. Monthly open board meetings, well attended by members, have given us many new and challenging ideas. Registration as a nonprofit organization was completed earlier in the year. We have hosted a fung shui talk by our Social Convenor Mr. Sandy Ng in March and a mahjong competition in May. Regular soccer games are held every Saturday and Sunday for the athletic minded members. In order to promote our association & enhance the communication between fellow Wahaynites, a quarterly newsletter is published and an Internet home page has been launched. To celebrate the 80th anniversary of Wah Yan Collge, Hong Kong and the 75th anniversary of Wah Yan College, Kowloon, we are teaming up again with the Wah Yan Hong Kong alumni here and the alumni from the Eastern U.S. chapter to organize four days of fun-filled events in July, 1999.

Thanks to the active participation of all our members, we are certain that the future of our association is extremely promising as we enter the new millennium.

The Shield Wah Yan Spirit at Work

Our School badge is a Shield to protect from deceits, errors, and temptations. The Shield is our Faith in Jesus Christ. It has a blue colour, because blue is the colour of the sky and of serenity. Embedded in it is the sign by which we are to conquer (In Hoc Signo Vinces) which is the Cross of Christ. It is in red, which is the colour of charity, a love that is proved in suffering and sacrifice, a love which brings life and meaning to all we do. This then is what we wear and what represents our Wah Yan Spirit, a Christian education for the kingdom of God, in the Jesuit tradition.

Harold Naylor, S.J.

Wah Yan Spirit at Work

By Angela Tsui Chan

It is delightful to have been invited to participate in the 75th and 80th anniversary celebration festivities organized by the Wah Yan alumni in Ontario. It is a wonderful idea to compile a Wah Yan College Kowloon Diamond Jubilee Souvenir Book. It was an interesting experience to help the Wah Yan College Kowloon Alumni Association of Ontario project team on an advisory basis, and I am sure that the efforts of the editorial committee and the artistic designers of the book will crystallize into a very worthwhile and memorable volume.

If my grandfather, Mr. Peter Tsui, were still alive, I am sure he would be very proud of this group of fine men who, amidst their busy work schedules, took the time and trouble to prepare for this momentous event comprising four days of celebrations and activities in July 1999. I am most impressed by their dedication and hard work; I think this truly shows the Wah Yan Spirit instilled in them during their early years.

Wah Yan World Community

Wah Yan Graduates have become responsible citizens in the countries they have settled and have linked up to form a world-wide Wah Yan community. With the advancement of information technology, this family has made a great impact in the growing global village outside Hong Kong where the seed was first sown more than 80 years ago. Please God, may our Alma Mater and the Wah Yan World Community continue to flourish in the next millennium.
