

8th December 2015

Dear Hin Shing:

Your letter and greetings reached me on 7, December – yesterday. Very many thanks and thanks for the photos. It was good of you to give the names in all the photos. It is so long since I saw them. Without your giving those names I would not have been able to recognize who was who. You put in a lot of work. All I can do, so far away for (them), is send my Christmas good wishes to each and all, and good health.

Just at present a cold surge of air has all here in warm clothes. Your cold of course is much more intense, but we are not used to it.

All are doing well – I hope.

I hope this short letter reaches you ahead of Christmas Day.

Good health for 2016.

Seosam Ó Mealláin
