

It is with great sadness to learn this morning from Margaret Yip that Paul passed away on Thursday, July 21, 2016. I am arranging to inform all 62 schoolmates and especially those in Toronto about the sad news and in the same time flowers with your permission.

For the classmates in Toronto, please attend and show our last respect to Paul. You can call me for car pool or driving direction.

May Paul rest in peace. God bless.

Peter Wong

+++++

Paul Yip Kwok Wai passed way on 21 July, 2016 peacefully at Mackenzie Health Hospital, Richmond Hill, Ontario after succumbing to his cardiac failure, survived by his beloved wife Margaret. Funeral Service will be held in the chapel of The Holy Cross Cemetery Wednesday 27 July 2016. Visitation hours set at 9.30am and Mass at 11.30 am, celebrated by Fr. Paul Pang, O.F.M. Paul was a devoted Catholic and volunteer, serving seniors in Toronto for almost 20 years. He will surely be missed.

Hugh Shang

+++++

Although I have no chance to play with Paul much at school nor do I get the opportunity to meet with him after I "returned to the fold", I am still saddened to hear that yet another one of us had fallen. May peace be with him!

Please convey my sincerest condolences to Margaret and the family. May the Lord grant Paul eternal peace in his embrace.

Alex

+++++

Really sorry to hear that, I have not seen him for a long time.

This is the photo I remember 葉國偉. May he rest in peace. Please send my condolence.

Bob Shen 沈長康

+++++

It's with great regret to learn that Paul Yip, our beloved classmate, passed away on July 21. I was terribly shocked to receive the bad news. Paul was a kind teacher, always ready to help when we called upon him. He had offered enormous time in helping seniors at Yee Hong Centre for Geriatric Care for many years. He had also taken up important positions at his parish church.

I was deeply sorry that I did not initiate to catch the moment to talk to him when he and Margaret sitting opposite to us at the same restaurant on the evening of July 19 as I was too tired getting off the bus tour to rush for food as it was already 8 pm that evening.

After I finished my order, Paul and Margret left the restaurant quite rapidly without noticing us too. We were not aware that this rush to say hello could have caused missing Paul forever. Now that Paul is gone and I feel much regretted forever.

Alex, thank you for your email and picture this morning showing that 3 classmates had already passed away this year. It is sad to know that it is now 4. I agree totally with your good advice that we all should meet as often as possible while we are still alive and capable of handling daily matters.

Simon

+++++

It is very sad to hear this sad news. Paul Yip was in the same Class 4B. He was a very studious student and always ranked in the top 5 position. He and Chu Chi Wing came to visit me in the summer of 1961 when I lived in Victory Road. We talked and enjoyed some collectors' music by the world famous tenor, Caruso. After 1962, I have not heard from him. A few years ago, I wrote him an email and never heard back from him.

Paul is a very religious catholic and a kind person. He likes playing basket ball. Unfortunately I spent lots of time in the soccer field.

I will miss him. May he RIP.

YorkLoon Chen, San Diego

+++++

So sad to hear this news! Paul was in the same class with me in 4B and 5B. He was quiet and studious, but I have to admit I don't know him well and we never did get a chance to see each other again after we left WYK. My deepest sympathy and sincere condolences go to his family and love ones! May him rest in peace!

Philip Chai

+++++

Paul was in my class but I had not seen him since 1960.

Our heartfelt condolences and sympathy to his family.

May Paul rest in eternal peace and joy.

David Koo

+++++

Please send my condolences to Paul Kwok Wai Yip's family. I remember him as quiet and religious; always polite and proper.

May Paul rest in Peace!

Albert Young

+++++

I was in F4B. As Yok-Loon Chen and Philip Chai reflected, Paul was quiet and studious, always among one of the best top five in the class. Bob shen also helped to re-jog my fading memory of Paul with his school day photo. Good men die young. May he rest in peace.

Francis Ching 程廣權

+++++

Margaret confirmed that Paul had suffered sudden/unexpected heart attack when attending evening Mass at Chinese Martyrs' Catholic Church on July 19th that took away his immediate life without precaution and symptom.

She said she might need some help from us on the day of visitation and funeral service. Details not fixed and right now, she is too confused.

She also requested that how many of us are coming for 解穢酒 at 君臨天下, 9019 Bayview Ave., Richmond Hill after service.

Simon

+++++

Christopher Liang 梁杰 (photo attached) has asked a priest he knows to offer a Mass for Peter Chow and Paul Yip whom will be mentioned during the Eucharistic Prayer.

[Peter, please relay to Margaret Yip the excerpts of emails exchanged between Christopher and Fr Fernando Azpiroz.]

Alex

----- Forwarded message -----

*From: Christopher Liang
Date: Sun, 24 Jul 2016 22:01:01 -0700
Subject: Mass for the Dead
To: fernando azpiroz*

Dear Father,

Thank you very much for your kindness. If you can offer a mass for Peter Chow and Paul Yip while you are in China that would be very good. I shall pass this information to their families.

I look forward to seeing you and the other good fathers at Casa Jesuitas again.

Thank you once again.

Christopher

On 7/24/16, fernando azpiroz wrote:

Dear Chris,

I usually offer Masses for friendswho passed away. The names of the persons for whom we offer the Mass is mentioned during the Eucharistic prayer. I will be very happy to offer a Mass for Peter and Paul.

I am going to China today andcan offer the Masses while in China.

In Christ,

Fernando

+++++