介紹九龍華仁公教舊生會

by 李文浩

九龍華仁公教舊生會的目的是在維持母校與舊生的感情，解決同學就業和他們的難題。凡本校畢業班的公教同學，繳交年費五元後，便成為會員，享有參與本會舉辦的一切活動的權利。

每屆中學會考完畢，陶德華神父便召集各級班級的公教同學一起選舉下年度的舊生會工作人員。舊生會的組織除正副主席、秘書、司庫外，尚有數名執行委員。前四位負的責任最大，辦的事最多，通常由離校已久的同學擔當。本會的監護人是陶德華神父，他對本會愛護有加。每當本會技術上或經費上有困難時，陶神父必全力協助。本會之有今日，陶神父的功績是不可遺忘的。

本會每月發出一紙通訊。與舊生會向有連繫的同學便從這通訊，知道了師長、同學的情況；獲得了靈性的進修，更得到就業的機會。因此本會十分重視這一刊物，各工作人員每月必回校集會一次，商討印刷通訊的事宜。當各人認為稿件妥善時，才交往油印。

這通訊還提醒各舊生來參加月中第三個主日，上午十時正，在母校餐廳的聚會。許多離校已久的舊生這一天都回母校聚聚餐，十時便去餐廳技藝班用早點。談笑間的快樂就有離校同學才能感受得到。

本會為各會員每年舉行一次遊歷。這是增進靈性進修工作之一。為使各人常常按期，本會還經常舉行有益身心的體育活動，由會方向母校商借場地，舉行球賽，如足球，網球等，歡迎會員參加。

每年本會都舉行聖誕聯歡會。同時會中各工作人員忙個不了，如印售餐券，籌備晚餐，並畫畫藝節目等。大家都希望把一百數十人的晚會弄得盡善盡美。晚餐是要物美價廉，餘興是要不落俗套，籌備的同學可做盡心機。母校在這晚會的經費上津貼

不少，可是由於工作人員的經驗不足，這晚會有時雖辦得不甚如理想。但是各會員依舊踴躍參加，支持這聯歡晚會。本會對各會員的職業問題，殊為關切。會方存有各畢業同學實際和通訊地址的紀錄，遇有合適職位的空缺，便迅速通知，使能及時前往應徵。以母校的聲譽，前往應徵的舊同學多獲優先錄用。舊生會的發展全賴於各同學的參與和支持。同人謹希望來年，每月第三個主日，在餐桌上會見到許多新的面孔。

直往雲帆濟滄海

Morning of 26th/April/2021 – Hong Kong time.

After struggling with kidney and heart disease for years. I am sorry to inform you that Clement Lee 李文浩 has passed away on last Saturday night. His heart impulse stopped suddenly after he finished a treatment in hospital and he did not come back eventually. His funeral is planning to hold on 18/19/May in Hong Kong Funeral Quarry Bay, Hong Kong.

I am a lot of yours , all the way to share with me. Thank you !

Wong Hin-Shing (1961) wrote (2021-04-26):

文浩 and I were never in the same class at WYK, but I knew of him as a scholar and a gentleman.

My thoughts are with the Lee Family and may he rest in peace!

Yu Fong-Ying (1961) wrote (2021-04-26, revised 2021-4-28):

Dear Mrs Lee and Members of the Lee Family,

Although Chiu Hay Kau had told me of Wen Hao's recent illnesses, I knew they were being treated.

It came as totally unexpected sad news that he had left us last Saturday.

Wen Hao was a classmate I greatly admire. When we were in the same classes for three years, he would sit in the back because he was tall and me in the front. He was very good in math and bridge playing. He was often quite humorous, always with self-assured confidence and humility at the same time. He broke new grounds in founding his own computer company and was a scholar manager among a distinct class of entrepreneurs. He went through Vancouver a couple of times to visit his relatives, and I met him at least twice. We would have breakfast in the hotel he stayed in, the last time with Ho Kar Wing in the Ramadan Inn on Broadway. On that occasion, he gave each of us two books, one by 唐君毅, a neo-Confucian classic, and a Chinese magazine he produced, with articles by graduates and staff of the Chengda University Engineering Faculty. I enjoyed reading both. Another time was a mini reunion dinner in 2014 with most of the Vancouverites present.

Please accept my deepest condolences for your loss, and take care in this especially difficult pandemic time.

Sincerely,

Yu Fong-ying (61 grad)

(Vancouver)

Fok Kee Sau, Kieran (1961) wrote (2021-04-26):

I am saddened by the passing of Clement Lee. He was a very friendly guy and has a lot to talk about. We kept in touch after Wah Yan, and would try to meet when I traveled through HK. He was quite active among classmates in HK and has invited me several times to their dinner gatherings and meet the old friends. For this I am most grateful. He and his wife Betty was in the Bay Area in 2019 and we had a nice gathering with some old classmates. Regrettably, that was the last time I saw him. Recently we had a few phone calls and learned that he was not well and had to stay in the hospital for some time. He told me how to take care and stay healthy. Unfortunately, he did not make it. My condolences to Betty and his family. He will be deeply missed.

Peter Lo (1961) wrote (2021-04-26):

It is sad to lose another friend.

Kieran wrote almost exactly what I wanted to say. He might visit Hon Kong more than I.

Clement was a good Bridge player. I just seldom played with him. Gabriel Lau was my regular partner.

Gilbert Chinn (1961) & Margaret wrote (2021-04-27):

I am so sorry for the loss of an old friend.

HK reunion, Clement & Betty spent whole day taking us and Peter Poon & spouse sightseeing and touring Lantau Big Buddha. We had sumptuous vegetarian lunch and gourmet dinner in Tung Chung. Clement is in our fond memories and prayers. Our sincere condolences to the family.

Harry Aitken (1961) wrote (2021-04-27):

So sorry that another of our dear friend has passed away. Our deepest condolence to Clement's family. Clement will remain in our thoughts and prayers.

Chan Kwok-Wai, Michael (1961) wrote (2021-04-27):

After our graduation in 1961, some of us went and got jobs right after graduation while most of us either stayed in Hong Kong or went abroad to further our study.

In the early 1970 most of us returned to Hong Kong and started to work. A group of us namely :

Clement Lee, Carmelo Leung, Ho Kar Wing, Fan Kay Yam, Choi Siu Ying, Albert Lam, Leung Ting Chu and myself decided to gather once a month with our spouses and children. As Albert and Fan Kay Yam had the largest apartments , the two places became our alternative venue every month.

The children will play together and adults will play either Mah Jong , bridge or card games. I still have fond memories of those gatherings.

Sadly to say with the passing of Clement Lee, Albert Lam, Ho Kar Wing and myself are the only three remaining of the group.

Leonard Leung (1961) wrote (2021-04-27):

Clement Lee was in the same class with me for may be two years. However we had been in gatherings quite a number of times either in US or Hong Kong. Because the Bay Area is where the Silicon Valley is in, he came here on many occasions of which I joined Peter Poon in gatherings with him. In Hong Kong, as he is good friend of Hai kaw I joined in their reunion get togethers. He was gentlemanly and just smiled when we made fun of his nick name—蟹, maybe at that time, the stock market was having a bad down turn. I did not know that he was suffering from multiple sickness and he must have suffered quite a lot.

My condolences to his family.

Our wam and sincere condolences to Clement' s family !

Clement was a regular at our local old-boys' get-together a few years back. He was good-natured , quiet and calm. He shall be fondly remembered by his fellow classmates.

Very sorry that our dear friend Clement passed away. My sincere condolences to the Lee' s family.

A few years back, he arranged a dinner gathering when I visited Hong Kong. Freddy Fong, Tse Tak Fu and Albert Lam also attended. This is the last time I met him.

His smiles, calmness and judiciousness will be fondly missed.

Hin-Shing told me the sad news. I don't think I knew Clement while I was in WYK. I met him at the 61 reunion in Toronto, and again in Vancouver with the 61 grads there in 2014. He was soft-spoken, well-mannered, down-to-earth and easy going.

May he Rest in Peace.

We definitely missed Clement especially the ways he treated people with his smile and pleasant personality. Still clearly remembered his nickname 'Uncle Crab' in the way he moved sideward in playing soccer during WYK times. He also turned up at 61 Grads reunion in Toronto. My condolences to his family.

Very sad that Clement had passed away. He was a good supporter of gathering of old classmates and had prompted me to organize a gathering in HK about once in every six months. Not possible for the past year due to COVID 19. He phoned me few months ago to update his health situation. He told me that was having problem with his kidneys which were slowly losing their function. May he rest now in eternal peace.

Clement and I were not at the same classes. I came across him at the dinner gatherings of old Way Yan classmates in Hong Kong, which were held about 4 or 5 times a year, since long time ago, may be 15 years or more. Such dinner gatherings were not held these recent 2 years or so....maybe our spirit died down as we all becoming old. Anyway the Covid19 provided a good excuse!

The funny thing was Clement was always the first one to arrive at the gathering, earlier than the appointed time. I was always the second one, just at the appointed time. So inevitably I would be sitting next to him. That made us that much closer and talking more! When I arrived, he was already sipping tea, or sometime even drinking beer, enjoying some small snacks like nuts or preserved radish, provided by the place.

Clement and I shared the same favourite in life - we enjoyed drinks - wine, beer and especially whiskey (as were other classmates too). He was basically not a talkative person but would participate in any topic, after a few drinks and feeling the mood. I can still remember he related stories of his days in Taiwan. The one about the Taiwan ladies taking clients to order Cheongsam was so funny that I would not forget even today!

Clement was one of us and will long be remembered!

It is really sad to learn that one of our dear classmates, Clement Lee, has passed away. Even though I do not know him too well but I am certain that he has been the number one supporter to all our WYK activities. I am attaching some of his photos in my collection for us to remember him well with. HS and FY, thanks for your effort to organize a Memory file for Clement. Hope these photos could help. I am sure many of these have already been in your file.

May he rest in peace.

On April 25 , I called Clement after I had not heard from him for quite a while. he did not answer the phone. I thought he was on the morning walk with his wife Betty. So I called Betty and learned that he was in the hospital treating his foot wound. I was relieved to hear that his foot wound was beginning to show sign of scar, even though still in bandages. I told Betty that was a good sign of healing. I told Betty that I and my wife have already taken our second vaccines shots and hope to be able to travel to Hong Kong once the Hong Kong government begins to lift the quarantine requirement. Then we will be able to take Clement out for his favorite foods.

When Clement and Betty visited San Francisco in 2019, I was glad that that they could stay in our house for a night and went out for a dinner of Dungenese crab, even though the swimming crab was not in its prime season.

We had travelled to Barcelona for a cruise to Monaco. In Barcelona, he showed us a short cut from our hotel to the farmer market where we tasted and bought the 72 months Spanish ham.

After the cruise, we flied to London to celebrate Rod Auyang' s birthday. He again showed us the sit down restaurant at Harolds for a nice fish and chip lunch. Later on we also went through London Chinatown and tasted different Chinese food. Of course we also visited different museum and palaces and took the Big Bus for a tour of London.

Clement passed away on April 26. All memories just seem like a dream. Hope he can find peace in heaven. We pray that Betty would come out from the sorrows and be strong.

I did not have encounter with Clement while in Wah Yan. Even though we both went to Taiwan for studies, we never met there.

I finally met him in 2015 at Toronto and again in Dec 2016 in HK.

We sat next to each other at the 2016 alumni reunion dinner and had quite a long talk which I enjoyed very much. He told me about his personal experience in HK after graduation, something that I don' t have much in my own profession. With his soft talking tone, I can tell he is an amiable gentleman.

We will all miss him.

About 17 years ago I had the opportunity to introduce a Canadian building security company to Clement. I was not much involved after the initial phase, but I think he was able to link up some Japanese company and concluded a deal with the Canadian company. He was always soft spoken and low key, but obviously he was well connected, very knowledgeable, and business savvy. He was a fine gentleman who will be missed.

#文浩曾向我說：父親是蒙古人，去了北京生活，娶了地道北京的母親。是故文浩母親說的是標準的北京話，所以在香港曾教過多位明星標準國語。他家住北角丹拿山居住時，(我 F. 6) 我曾往文浩家數次，他父母都彬彬有禮，且好客。世伯去世，我往靈堂致祭，整晚(當然係到晚上十時)只有我一人陪着文浩夫婦二人，可見他們在港係有親戚。

#我剛升讀 F.6 B 時，才認識文浩！他主動找我，告訴我讀理科最好認識微積分(calculus) 將來會有用得着的時刻。還邀我去他(丹拿山)家中上課。自此大家就熟絡起來了。

#同學振憲君去年返港，帶我去過丹拿山的舊址，才知道文浩住過的地方已重建為一幢多層，豪華的長者居所。勾起六十年前的舊事，有滄海桑田之感。

#文浩為人豁達，他在台灣修讀電機工程後返港經商。告訴我曾兩度生意失敗，但最終能夠睇得開。亦係佢夫人嘅功勞！她一直在旁協助，任勞任怨。反觀某高年班同學失意時，日日逗留在文浩 office,

不想歸家。文浩夫婦对此君亦十分體諒，不曾拒之門外。可見文浩胸襟之寬大。

#文浩很喜歡吃。去年与他失聯了一段時間，原來他入住東區醫院六個月，等候身體正常才做手術(心臟?)。剛出院不久就約我到尖沙咀映月樓，吃過飽才開心。之後才了解他患糖尿和腎病。

#願他自今遠離世間罣礙，得享極樂。

A NOTE

This In Memoriam file was compiled by Wong Hin-Shing with the assistance of Yu Fong-Ying, finalized on May 06, 2021.

Our thanks are due to all who contributed in one way or another, to Ho Kar Wing who provided five photos, and to Andrew Man who sent us 26 photos from his collection. So many classmates expressed such warm memories of Wen-Hao, it bears witness to his capacity to make and keep friends, good humour, wisdom and inclusiveness. A Catholic, seven years in WYK, and a strong supporter of reunions, he helped to cement our friendship in the Wah Yan spirit. He will long be in our memories. May he rest in peace!

We also hope the Lee family will take solace from reading this file.
